The Kensington Hotel offers our guests the ultimate London townhouse experience, providing the perfect starting point for exploring one of the city's most exclusive and charming enclaves.

Following a recent refurbishment, this beautifully authentic property offers guests' a pied-à-terre that is simply begging to be experienced. With period-style drawing rooms, magnificent bay windows, real fireplaces, parquet floors and original art, it is truly one of Regency London's most imposing properties, offering luxurious bedrooms, a vibrant cocktail bar, modern restaurant, exclusive nightclub and full-service gym

The Kensington Hotel offers 149 rooms and suites with magnificent proportions, designer furnishings and chic touches throughout. All rooms are located on the upper floors and feature crisp linens, chic furnishings and LCD TV's, while our chic Studio Suites offer free-standing baths, TileVision bathroom TV's and full length French windows and balconies offering magnificent panoramic views across the Royal Borough.

Situated on the convenient side of London for Heathrow Airport and just a short ride from the West End or the City, The Kensington Hotel is ideally placed for the business traveller – and ideally equipped, too, with complimentary Wi-Fi, printing, photocopying and fax services, chargers and laptops.

Indulge in the most memorable London townhouse experience.
