For anyone who appreciates style, faultless service and understated luxury, The Marylebone Hotel is the perfect West End London Hotel.

In the heart of London's West End, crossing fashionable Bond Street and past the cafés and boutiques, you enter Marylebone village, the fashionable home of those in the know and of the elegantly refurbished Marylebone Hotel. Offering guests 257 bedrooms and suites, state-of-the-art meeting rooms and a leading restaurant it is the ideal city base.

Design details make the difference at this chic hotel; a beautiful hand-laid mosaic floor and column in the hotel lobby, fabulous Parisian furnishings, fine Italian ceramics, tasteful lighting and countless other eye-catching touches brought about by the hotel's multi-million pound transformation in 2008. 108 Marylebone Lane, the quintessential neighbourhood restaurant, offers diners simple, contemporary cuisine using the freshest seasonal ingredients and specialist local Marylebone suppliers.

At The Marylebone Hotel luxury means making everything our guests do a pleasure – including business. The Hotel Conference Centre features a suite of six naturally-lit, air-conditioned conference suites, all stylishly refurbished and re-equipped, and capable of hosting up to 65 delegates. Just minutes off Oxford Street and Hyde Park, this Marylebone Hotel is the ideal location for London's business districts as well as the city's best retail and cultural attractions.

For style, service and elegance in London, look no further.
