

Press release 16.09.09...

Triskel in association with Jurys Cork Hotel released the news today of an exciting collaboration between both companies which will be officially launched next Friday evening at 8pm at Jurys Cork Hotel on the Western Road.

Our Inaugural concert will be with Cormac Kenevey Ireland's favourite young jazz singer, who will perform with his band, an evening of songs by the greats: Nat 'King' Cole, Mel Tormé, Chet Baker, Louis Armstrong, Tony Bennett and of course Mr. Sinatra." Commented Tony Sheehan – Director of Triskel.

The new venture "Triskel Live at Jurys" will offer some of the best in Irish and International Jazz Music anywhere this season, leading up to, including, and following on from this year's Guinness Jazz Festival which will all take place at Jurys Cork Hotel.

The programme includes readings by high profile writers, events for children, and for Chris Wood fans, a special concert following his success in winning the BBC 2 Folk Award for album of the year and artist of the year.

"Its such an exciting opportunity to provide unique Autumn/Winter packages for our guests, and of course outstanding value for money" added Paula Cogan – Sales and Marketing Manager.

We will offer a number of individual packages for guests – 1 nights accommodation for 2 people in an Executive Room, Full Irish breakfast and tickets for 2 to a variety of Triskel concerts (excluding Jazz Festival Weekend) and events for as little as €129 per couple.

We have an extra special overnight package for families on Saturday December 19th, which includes overnight accommodation breakfast and dinner

For a family of four and tickets to the Miriam Lambert puppet show for €200.

Packages can be booked via Jurys Cork Hotel at 021 4252700 or www.doylecollection.com

*Details plus images from the programme are available from the Press Desk
almakilmurray@triskelartscentre.ie*

ENDS.