Overlooking the iconic circle, The Dupont Circle sits a stroll away from the city's political bustle; surrounded by boutiques, bookshops, artisan bakeries and sidewalk cafes. The polished stone floors of the hotel's glamorous lobby have, for decades, echoed with the footsteps of DC's political heavyweights, whilst the Italian marble fireplace has warmed fretful conversations long into the evenings. The Dupont Circle really comes to life after dark, and Bar Dupont buzzes as guests and locals rub shoulders with Washington's hip crowd. Bar Dupont also offers lunch and dinner, while the modern French brasserie Cafe Dupont serves breakfast, dinner and weekend brunch. The lounge area on the Executive Floor - Level Nine – is the perfect place to digest the day's news over great coffee, while balconies offer astonishing views across the city – perfect to absorb the buzz of global decision-making going on all around. The 327 guest rooms and suites are comfortably appointed; spacious and design-led, each with their own iPhone docking stations, flat screen TVs and spacious bathrooms with roomy walk-in showers.

The hotel is part of The Doyle Collection, an Irish, family-owned hotel group with hotels in 5 cities across the globe, all offering a unique Slice of the City by giving guests the opportunity to get a taste of each hotel's fantastic location with special menus, amenities and distinctive touches in the hotel, as well as opening the door to special experiences around the city through the expertise and contacts of the hotel team and partnerships with the best local experts and attractions.

The Slice of the City: Your Vote, Your Stay package is available from $629 + tax per night for a two-night minimum stay.
