WINTER FESTIVITIES 2018/2019

Winter Festivities in London

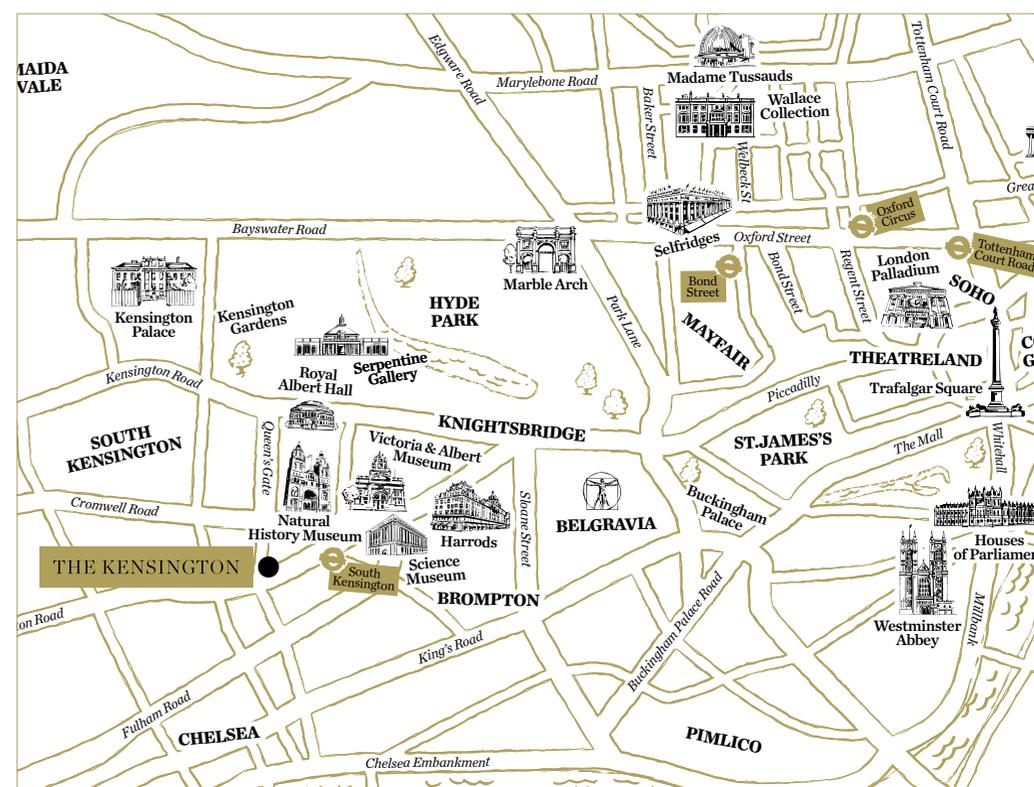

With its festive lights and decorations, London is a magical place at Christmas. However, it's not just for the 25th of December that the capital sparkles for winter.

During Halloween, prepare for revellers in fabulous costumes. Bonfire Night is a family affair as fireworks light up the city, while our American cousins' wholesome celebration of Thanksgiving is a firm fixture on the calendar.

Then it's all about the lead-up to the main event, as the Christmas party season gets into full swing and the city streets are abuzz with communal ice rinks and winter markets.

The fun doesn't stop on Boxing Day. Dazzling parties abound on New Year's Eve; followed by the poetic sophistication of Burns Night; whilst London's Chinatown celebrates Chinese New Year with vibrant parades and extravagant feasts.

It's during the festive season that London's cosmopolitan, multicultural vibe truly comes to life.

Let the festivities commence!

At The Kensington, we are perfectly positioned to provide the best that London has to offer this winter. From the Natural History Museum's famous ice rink; and Hyde Park's spectacular Winter Wonderland, to carol concerts in local churches and musical extravaganzas at the Royal Albert Hall, the festivities play out right on our doorstep.

The Kensington greets the season with warm welcoming fireplaces; matched by the warm service ethos of our attentive yet discreet staff, on hand to ensure your festivities are flawlessly fabulous.

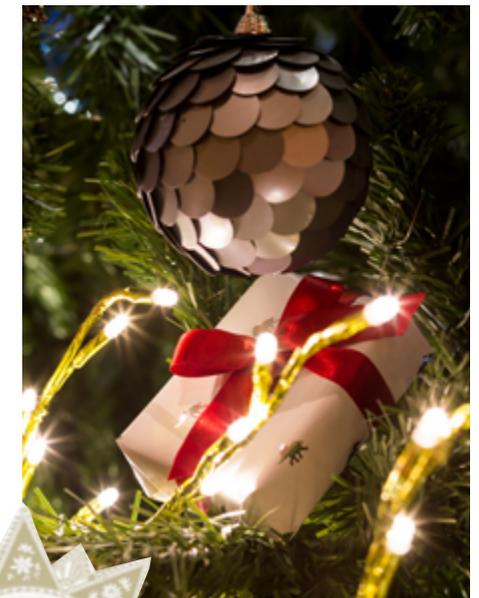

We invite you to host your celebrations in our home-away-from-home, whether it's a private dinner in Town House, with its modern mix of seasonal and locally-sourced dishes, or an intimate drinks reception in our cosy K Bar.

Or, perhaps you'd like to make The Kensington your home this Christmas? If so, you'll find rooms and suites that blend contemporary comfort with a classic Victorian townhouse feel.

Whatever your reason for celebrating, from Thanksgiving to Burns Night, discover the welcoming embrace of our hotel this season.

Dine in style

Town House restaurant lives up to its name with three individually decorated, interconnecting rooms ensuring a vibrant, communal feel. Festive groups can hire one or more of these individual spaces for private dining, cocktail parties and events.

The intimacy of The Library, with its bookcases and characterful collectables provides a cultured backdrop for drink receptions, while the expansive feel of The White Room, with its colourful furnishings and open fireplace, makes a stylish venue for a group dinner.

The softly lit atmosphere of Town House is complemented by the refined ambience of the adjoining K Bar, which is perfect for pre- or post-dinner drinks; its leather-panels, green marble top bar, and gently-lit lamps reminiscent of an exclusive private members' club.

Whichever space you choose, you'll find the elegance reflected in the artistic presentation of the dishes served.

Christmas celebrations

If you're planning a rousing festive party for friends or colleagues or looking to enjoy an intimate Christmas Day lunch or dinner with the family, our festive menu is a celebration of fresh, seasonal food.

In the lead-up to Christmas, our indulgent three-course menu is perfect for festive gatherings. Traditional dishes come with a modern twist – such as roast breast of Gressingham duck served with potato terrine, chicory & blood orange; and a Clementine & ginger bread trifle to name but two of the dishes.

Meanwhile, for drinks parties, we offer a selection of festive canapés – Champagne & truffle arancini; Southcoast crab cornetto with mango salsa or a smoked beetroot tartare with caramelised hazelnuts.

Our six-course Christmas Day banquet is a modern rendering of classic British fare with roast bronze turkey and apricot stuffing. For those looking to venture beyond the traditional, there's Scottish venison and Atlantic halibut, or Keltic scallop with tarragon-glazed heritage carrot. Crispy chicken alongside a butternut squash ravioli are among the decadent starters, while desserts span from an apple tart tatin with cinnamon ice cream to Christmas pudding - with an extra helping of brandy sauce of course!

“...this elegant building is a stone's throw from some of Europe's best luxury shops, if you can bear to tear yourself away from the open fireplaces... and fantastic cuisine at the Town House restaurant...”

It's New Year's Eve!

The indulgence factor is dialled up with our New Year's Eve menu, featuring classic British dishes, locally sourced and delivered with a continental flourish.

Devonshire crab tortelloni comes with a Champagne and shellfish reduction; Roast fillet of Glencoe venison Wellington is embellished with truffle duxelle. Perhaps you'll elect to keep the fizz flowing with a Champagne and Perigord truffle risotto. For dessert, the mouth watering options include, blood orange crème brûlée, Valrhona double chocolate fondant or passion fruit cake with raspberry sorbet.

Dishes selected, now you just need to choose your wines, and of course, bubbles at midnight!

Stay with us

We invite you to make The Kensington your home-away-from-home this season. Our enviable location means guests merely need to turn the corner to discover the chic cafés and boutiques of South Kensington, whilst some of the capital's most famous cultural landmarks are all just a short stroll away.

Our rooms and suites combine sumptuous fabrics, sleek furnishings and eclectic artwork with at-your-fingertip conveniences and luxurious amenities. Our family rooms accommodate up to four in a snug base that doesn't stint on style, and the children can look forward to special gifts and surprises.

For a perfect winter party setting, our Signature Suites provide plenty of space to relax in this season. Be it the regal splendour of The Brompton Suite, with its floor-to-ceiling windows and crystal chandeliers, or the contemporary cool of The Knightsbridge Suite, with a Jacuzzi bath and balcony. These are the ultimate city retreats, and may be combined for larger parties.
