PRESS RELEASE

Tis the season: Festive fun at The Bristol

Bristol, November 2021: The festive season is upon us and there is no better place to enjoy a weekend or – thanks to remote working – mid-week break to make the most of the Christmas markets, shows and decorations than The Bristol (www.doylecollection.com/bristol). Located in the heart of the city overlooking a pretty cobbled quayside, it has some super attractive rates and packages available right now so guests can visit the Bristol Christmas Market, a traditional European market with 40 unique stalls selling seasonal delights, crafts and unique items, that is already open.

Festive afternoon tea & cocktails at The Bristol

After checking into one of The Bristol's gorgeous rooms (many with panoramic views over the city), The River Lounge is the perfect spot to relax over a traditional afternoon tea or an early evening cocktail or two. There will then be plenty of time to stroll (less than 15 minutes) to Broadmead to admire the decorations and shop for a few stocking fillers at the Christmas market, before returning to The River Grille (the top-rated hotel restaurant in Bristol on TripAdvisor) for a delicious meal and a spot of people watching through the floor to ceiling windows overlooking the vibrant Harbourside.

Those really wanting to get into the festive spirit, however, may wish to wait till 24 November when The Bristol's Christmas decorations will be put up. By then, the Bristol Local Christmas Market with an exciting and eclectic mix of 22 local artists, producers and small businesses will be open celebrating the vibrant independent spirit of the city. Book your stay a little later, after 1 December, and a festive afternoon tea will be on offer, along with seasonal specialities in The River Grille. Either can be enjoyed before a visit to the theatre.

This year, there's Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs at Bristol Hippodrome, Robin Hood : Legend of the Forgotten Forest at the Bristol Old Vic and Christmas at the Speigeltent, with a series of spectacles including a drag ball, club nights, live music, circus and comedy that mean there is something for everyone, from kids to adults to teenagers and families too. All three venues are a 5-minute walk or less from The Bristol, so guests can be back in the comfort of their room in no time at all.

The Bristol's "Breakfast with our Compliments" package starts from just £84 (inclusive of VAT) for two people sharing a beautifully appointed double room, with a complimentary à la carte breakfast in the light-flooded River Grille the following morning.

And for those guests who really want to make an occasion of their visit, The Bristol has created a luxurious "Make a Night of it" – or even "Make a Mid-Week Night of it" – package that includes:

- An overnight stay in a beautifully appointed room
- 3-course dinner in The River Grille with a glass of Champagne
- Full English breakfast the following morning
- Early check-in and late check-out subject to availability
- Upgrade subject to availability on arrival

Rates start from £145 for two people sharing a double room.

All these packages are available until the 30th of December 2021 and can be booked online at www.doylecollection.com/bristol.

Notes for Editors

The Bristol is in the heart of the city, between the historic cobbled Narrow Quay and elegant Queen Square, just a few minutes' walk from major cultural landmarks such as The Bristol Old Vic, Arnolfini, Watershed, SS Great Britain and M Shed, as well as the fabulous new shopping district of Cabot Circus.

The Bristol has 187 rooms and suites, which are among the largest and most luxurious in the city; deluxe rooms and juniors suites having additional luxuries such as media hubs and Nespresso coffee machines.

The Bristol is housed in a distinctive 1960s building, recognised as a prime example of the Modern architectural movement. www.doylecollection.com/bristol
