WILDE

Everything's Rosé Returns to WILDE at The Westbury for Spring/Summer 2022 with New and Exclusive Rosé Wines for Guests to Discover

WILDE at The Westbury once again invites guests to sample an expertly curated selection of exquisite rosé wines from the South of France, offering a taste of Provence in Dublin City

May 3, 2022 At the start of every spring, WILDE at The Westbury, a part of The Doyle Collection Hotel Group, turns a glorious shade of pink marking the return of guest-favourite experience, Everything's Rosé. Each year, the dedicated team look forward to raising the bar, introducing patrons to new and exclusive rosé wines and delectable blush-coloured cocktails. 2022 is no different in this respect, with The Westbury delightedly rolling out the pink carpet alongside a host of fresh tastes for wine-lovers to sample.

This year sees The Westbury partnering with Provence-based Maison Mirabeau and esteemed Irish artist Ciara O'Neill, who designed the cover art for this year's menu. Ciara's print inspired the overall look of the menu as well as the beautiful floral installation imagined by Kasia Skopinska featured throughout the iconic terrace overlooking Grafton Street, creating the perfect setting for guests to enjoy the Everything's Rosé tasting experience.

WILDE'S exclusive Flight of the Rosé tasting experience, €30, includes a 75ml pour from each of the three rosés from the Mirabeau collection: Mirabeau Pure Rosé 2021 (normally priced at €16 per glass, €65 per bottle, or €120 per 1500ml magnum bottle), Mirabeau Etoile Rosé 2021 (€18 per glass, €75 per bottle), and Mirabeau La Folie Sparkling Rosé (€18 per glass, €75 per bottle). Each flight will be accompanied by a guide through the individual tasting notes of each pour in this unique experience, transporting guests to the rolling and florid vineyards of Provence while sitting right in the heart of Dublin. Each wine within the tasting flight has been carefully selected by The Doyle Collection's Group Sommelier, Philip Dunne.

The Everything's Rosé menu also features the classic Le Bijou de Sophie Valrose from the Languedoc, available in single glass serves, €11.50, or by the bottle, €44; plus a selection of exquisite rosés from the WILDE collection, available by the bottle, including Miraval from Provence (€75 per bottle), Rock Angel from Provence (€135 per bottle), Hampton Water Rosé, created by the Bon Jovi family in the Languedoc (€65 per bottle), Château d'Esclans Les Clans (€195 per bottle), the limited edition Mirabeau La Réserve (€95 per bottle), and Muse by Miraval (€350 per 1500ml magnum bottle).

The exquisite new menu launching for summer 2022 also features a selection of sparkling rosé wines and champagne, including Charles Heidsieck Rosé Réserve NV (€25 per glass, €120 per bottle), Crémant d'Alsace Organic Rosé (€17 per glass, €79 per bottle), Moët & Chandon Rosé NV (€140 per bottle), Rosé Prosecco, Ca' di Alte (€59 per bottle), and Dom Pérignon Rosé 2005 (€600 per bottle). For those looking for an alcohol-free option, Leitz Eins Zwei Zero Sparkling Rosé (€8 per glass, €32 per bottle) offers a refreshing way to join in the celebration.

This summer's Everything's Rosé cocktail offering features four specially created pink cocktails – A Mirabeau Cup, €15, featuring Mirabeau Pure Rosé, raspberry, rhubarb, mint and cherry tonic; the Madame Rosé, €15, made with Mirabeau Dry Gin (a herbaceous-style dry pale pink gin), pêche de vigne, grapefruit, lime and blueberry syrup; the Lillet Rosé Spritz, €15, a blend of Lillet Rosé, classic tonic, lime and strawberries; and the Summer Rosé G&T, €15, a mix of Mirabeau Dry Gin, elderflower, cherries and cherry tonic.

The team at WILDE at The Westbury look forward to welcoming you to its bloom-filled terrace to experience this unique taste of the South of France this summer, available until August 31.

Note to editors: Situated on the second floor of The Westbury, overlooking Dublin's Grafton Street, WILDE redefines traditional dining. Bathed in natural light, the 1930s-style décor paired with an abundance of greenery offers guests a sense of al fresco dining in a relaxed and elegant setting. The food, prepared by Executive Chef Sandeep Singh and his team, celebrates carefully sourced, seasonal Irish produce, while the extensive wine list has been carefully selected by Doyle Collection Group Sommelier Philip Dunne, winner of Best Sommelier at the Sunday Business Post Gold Star Awards 2019. The Westbury – one of the Doyle Collection's eight hotels – offers guests a five-star home in the heart of Dublin City; a place to dine, meet and rest amidst supreme luxury. A member of The Leading Hotels of the World and the Virtuoso luxury travel network, The Westbury lies a short distance from Dublin's finest cultural highlights, including Trinity College, the Museum of Literature Ireland (MoLI), and St Stephen's Green, while Grafton Street and Dublin's "Creative Quarter" are right at the hotel's doorstep, allowing guests to explore some of the city's finest shops, theatres, museums, galleries and restaurants at their leisure.
