WELCOME TO THE MARYLEBONE

The vibrant, bijou feel of Marylebone, one of London's trendiest neighbourhoods, is reflected in the chic and stylish ambiance of The Marylebone. A stone's throw from the department stores and boutiques of Oxford Street, Bond Street and Mayfair, the characterful restaurants and stores of Marylebone High Street, The Marylebone harnesses the infectious energy and style of West London at every turn.

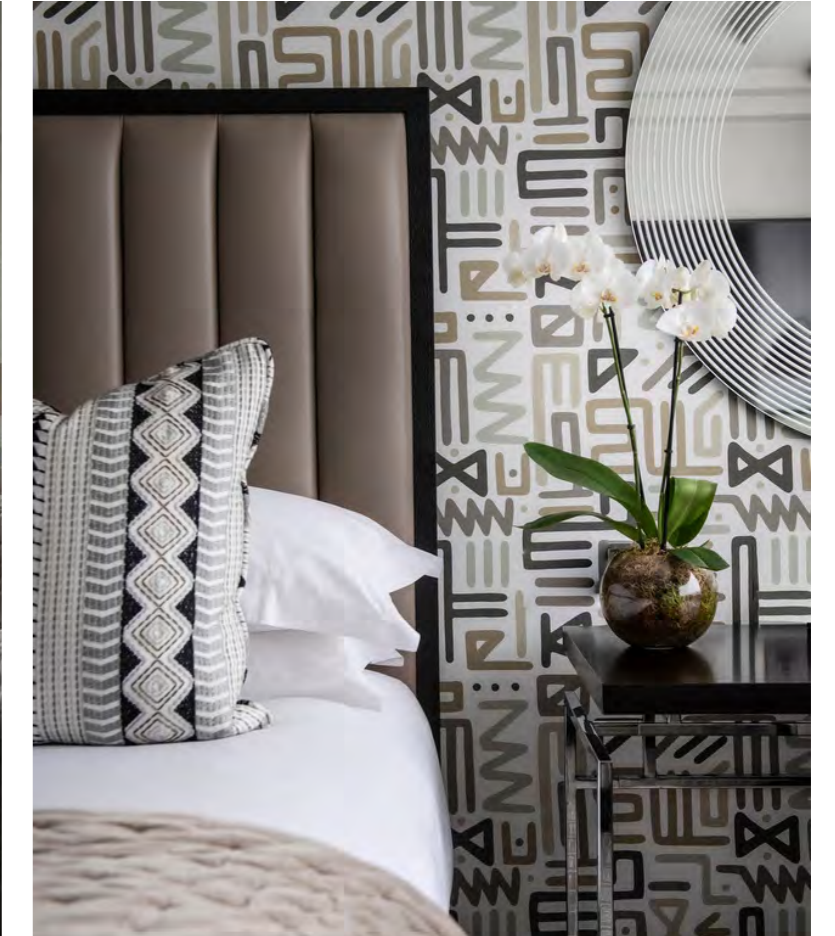

The stylish tone is set by the hotel's chic lobby and The Cocktail Bar, characterised by a series of inviting nooks and a playful, elegant terrace. Then there's 108 Brasserie, situated on the cobbles of Marylebone Lane, where the outdoor tables, greenery, and elegant lantern lighting evoke the ambiance of a Parisian café.

Inside, the curved 108 Bar serves as a lively gathering spot for both locals and guests, while health-conscious visitors can enjoy the exclusive on-site Third Space gym and the inviting 18-metre pool.

This is hotel living at its most vibrant.

GUEST ROOMS

Elegant guest rooms, featuring soothing, stylish décor and striking Italian marble bathrooms, effortlessly combine luxury and contemporary comfort.

SUITES

Exquisitely designed suites range from stylish Studio and Luxury Suites to the stunning Terrace Suites, with their beautiful outdoor spaces and skyline views—rivalling any in London for sheer wow factor.

Few, if any, London hotel suites can match the impact and character of The Marylebone's headline Terrace Suites for style or space, inside and out. Looking out over the central London skyline, these stylish havens provide the comforts of a home from home in one of the city's most fashionable neighbourhoods.

THE LOFT SUITE

With timber floors throughout, soft neutral walls, and ceilings that follow the contours of the roof, this contemporary loft space is designed for relaxation and comfort.

The tailored oak joinery of the kitchenette and the wardrobes are complemented by the subtle glamour of marble and brass in the bathrooms. Bright fabrics, bold patterns, and contemporary furnishings complete the look, layered with a selection of books and original artwork.

WELLNESS

RESTAURANTS & BARS

Oozing local charm and buzz, 108 Brasserie is a popular neighbourhood indoor-outdoor restaurant that offers delicious contemporary dining. In 108 Bar, explore a world of spirits, including its very own 108 Gin, as well as a selection of fine wines.

An array of creative and traditional cocktails can be enjoyed in The Cocktail Bar, characterised by its inviting nooks and crannies and its playful, elegant terrace.

MEETINGS & EVENTS

The Marylebone Rooms, with their elegant and contemporary feel, can be tailored for private parties or business summits alike. The spaces feature a modern, vibrant design that includes open fireplaces, integrated media screens, and individually controlled light and sound systems, creating a stylish blend of richly textured furnishings and a distinctive colour palette throughout.

SLICE of the CITY

the architecture - grand red-brick terraces, smart squares, cobbled mews houses and its signature mansion flats - and it's in Marylebone's cultural highlights: the brilliant Wallace Collection in Manchester Square, with its Rococo paintings; the concerts at Wigmore Hall, where classical music aficionados gather. Round the corner on Baker Street - yes, Sherlock Holmes' fictional stomping ground - the Everyman is an excellent cinema tending towards art-house movies.

The Marylebone magic goes beyond the High Street. Chiltern Street has been named London's coolest street by Condé Nast Traveller and is full of fashionable outlets like New & Lingwood. Moxon Street has food outlets like La Fromagerie. Oxford Street is nearby if guests want a complete shopping immersion but Marylebone is for the cognoscenti.

WALK MARYLEBONE VILLAGE

Marylebone Village is one of the most fashionable districts in London.

Why 'village'? Because, as a stroll reveals (and this is an area that rewards walkers) it has that sense of concentrated and varied life that such an urban community should bring; with restaurants, boutiques, food shops and a great old-fashioned bookshop in Daunt Books, into which people disappear for hours at a time. It's a place to saunter and take coffee and cake in smart cafés like The Monocle Café, eat at places like Donostia, and browse the shelves of independent stores that make great places for gift shopping. The varied tone has been deliberately kept by the area's three landlords: The Portman Estate, Howard De Walden Estates and the Church Commissioners.

But your walk isn't just about buying, it's also about enjoying Marylebone's air of graciousness. It's in
