An evening of Bristol-grown and made biodynamic wine at go-to harbourside spot, Rick's.

Rick's at The Bristol will take guests on a journey through Limeburn Hill's three 2022 vintages alongside a tailor-made pairing menu of delectable, seasonal canapés this September.

With summer coming to a close and autumn moving into its place, Rick's at The Bristol is welcoming the change of season with a one-off evening of wine and seasonal canapés hosted founder and head grower Robin Snowdon from the Chew Magna-based biodynamic vineyard, Limeburn Hill.

Tickets are on sale now for the limited-capacity event, which will offer a curated menu of Bristol-grown and made biodynamic wines as well as exclusive and made-to-pair canapés from the passionate team at Rick's.

Taking place on Thursday 7th September, the Chew Magna vineyard will showcase amber, rosé, and red wines from its 2022 vintage, with founder Robin on hand to detail tasting notes for each, as well as share information about how the sustainable vineyard runs and produces the highest quality English biodynamic wine.

Doors for An Evening with Limeburn Hill at Rick's will open at 6pm, with the event beginning at 6.30pm where guests will be welcomed with an introduction to the vineyard before tasting the first of three Bristol wines. With each wine, guests will experience a 125ml sample tasting glass alongside two Rick's canapés. Think Ise of White Heritage tomatoes paired perfectly with their delicate rosé, English amber wine served with Bath blue cheese & caramelised pear, and Limeburn Hill's robust red with Buxton Butcher slow roast pork belly to name but a few pairings.

The perfect experience for lovers of food and wine, tickets can be purchased over at <http://sevn.ly/xXwRSCwR> for £30 per person, this exclusive evening is not to be missed.

Perched on the outskirts of Bristol, Limeburn Hill is situated in the fairytale-like village of Chew Magna. As only one of six biodynamic vineyards in the country, and the only one in the South West of England, this vineyard is the frontrunner in ecological wine-making. Its small batches of wine are made from their own hand-harvested grapes, using wild yeast on the skins to produce Demeter-certified wines, a consumer guarantee of biodynamic agriculture. Made without synthetic pesticides or fertilizers, Limeburn Hill prides itself on providing high-quality organic wine to its customers.
