

The image features a complex Art Deco geometric pattern in black lines on a light olive-green background. The pattern consists of vertical and horizontal lines that form a series of interlocking shapes, including diamonds and rectangles. A central vertical axis is highlighted by a series of stepped, rectangular lines that converge towards a central point. In the center of this axis, there is a small, stylized sunburst or fan-like symbol. Below this symbol is a horizontal rectangular box with a slightly irregular, Art Deco-style border. Inside this box, the text "THE SIDECAR" is written in a bold, black, serif font. Below the box, there is another small, stylized sunburst or fan-like symbol, mirroring the one above. The overall composition is symmetrical and highly decorative.
